Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was discussed: Mr. Yu described the invention as being a remote controller unit built-in recorder or being coupled by means for recording any sounds such as voice, ambient noises television etc. so that the sounds can be reproduced at a later time. Kimura disclosed a remote control for recording voice in order to control a device using same recognized voice. The examiner indicated such differences have not been claimed and suggested to amend claims to distinguish the recorder used in invention ~~and~~ recorder of Kimura.
